Dear :

We are responding to a letter dated June 10, 2004, submitted on behalf of the Taxpayer requesting a late S corporation election. Although we are unable to respond to the request as submitted, this letter provides useful information relating to the request.

According to the information provided, the Taxpayer filed a Form 2553 on June 20, 2003, requesting a late S corporation election effective January 1, 2001. However, the Service Center informed the Taxpayer that it did not qualify to have a 2001 effective date. To obtain relief, the Taxpayer may request a private letter ruling.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections and inadvertent invalid S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late or invalid S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2004-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2004-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $6,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their last-filed tax return qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you are eligible to use the reduced fee provision you must include the statement described in ' (B)(1)(b) of Appendix A with your request. Please review Appendix B for a sample format for requesting a private letter ruling.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please include the proper user fee (if applying under the reduced fee provisions, send a statement certifying gross income), and refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:
