Taxpayer = [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]:

This responds to a letter dated October 21, 2004 in which it was requested that we recognize Taxpayer's election to be an S corporation effective for the 2000 tax year.

A corporation, which meets the definition of a small business corporation under section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, may elect to be treated as an S corporation. In order for an S corporation election to be effective for the taxable year in which it is made, it must be made within the first two and one-half months of the corporation's taxable year. Section 1362(b)(2). If an S election is made after that time, then the corporation will not be treated as an S corporation until the taxable year following the one in which the S election was filed. Section 1362(b)(3). An election made after the first two and one-half months of the taxable year in which it is intended to be effective may be treated as effective if the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the corporation's failure to make a timely election. Section 1362(b)(5).

Our records indicate that Form 2553 was not filed for the Taxpayer's behalf until September 20, 2004. Unfortunately, we cannot grant the relief requested under Rev. Proc. 2003-43 because the original due date of the Taxpayer's S election was October 26, 2000, and therefore more than 24 months had passed since the original due date of the election and the time the Taxpayer filed its request for relief (May 25, 2004). In addition, relief cannot be granted under Rev. Proc. 97-48 because our records indicate that the return for the first taxable year (2000) in which it was intended that Taxpayer be an S corporation was not timely filed.

Relief for your late S corporation may be obtained through a letter ruling. Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2004-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2004-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $6,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their tax return for the most recent 12-month taxable year, qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you qualify for the reduced fee, you must include a statement certifying your gross income for the last 12-month taxable year. Otherwise, the higher fee will apply.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please review Appendix B of Rev. Proc. 2004-1 and be certain to include all required procedural statements. Also include the proper user fee and any documents that substantiate your intent to be an S corporation from inception. Please refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:
