Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information so that we can process your claim. We need it to ensure that you are allocating items correctly and to allow us to figure the correct amount of your claim for refund. The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average times are: Recordkeeping, 13 min.; Learning about the law or the form, 5 min.; Preparing the form, 58 min.; Sending the form, 31 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both the Internal Revenue Service, Attention: Reports Clearance Officer, PC:FP, Washington, DC 20224; and the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (1545-1210), Washington, DC 20503. Do not send this form to either of these offices. Instead, see How Do I File Form 8379? below.

Are You an Injured Spouse?

You are an injured spouse if all or part of your share of the overpayment shown on your joint return was, or is expected to be, applied against your spouse's past-due child or spousal support payments or certain Federal debts such as student loans. You may file Form 8379 to claim your part of the refund if all three of the following apply:

1. You are not required to pay the past-due amount.
2. You received and reported income (such as wages, taxable interest, etc.) on the joint return.
3. You made and reported payments, such as Federal income tax withheld from your wages or estimated tax payments, on the joint return.

If all three of the above apply and you want your share of the overpayment shown on the joint return refunded to you, complete this form. The IRS will figure your part of the overpayment and send you any refund that is due. However, if you also owe past-due child support or a Federal agency debt, part or all of your share of the overpayment may be applied to that debt. Allow 6-8 weeks for the processing of this claim.

How Do I File Form 8379?

- If you have already filed the joint tax return, mail Form 8379 by itself to the same Internal Revenue Service Center where you filed the joint return. Include copies of all W-2 forms of both spouses and any Forms 1099-R showing income tax withheld.
- If you haven't filed the joint return, attach Form 8379 to your return when you file it. Write "Injured Spouse" in the upper left corner of the return.
