General Instructions

Purpose of Form

If you cashed series EE U.S. savings bonds in 1994 that were issued after 1989, you may be able to exclude from your income part or all of the interest on those bonds. Use Form 8815 to figure the amount of any interest you may exclude.

Who May Take the Exclusion

You may take the exclusion if all four of the following apply:

- 1. You cashed qualified U.S. savings bonds in 1994 that were issued after 1989.
- 2. You paid qualified higher education expenses in 1994 for yourself, your spouse, or your dependents.
- 3. Your filing status is single, married filing a joint return, head of household, or qualifying widow(er) with dependent child.
- 4. Your modified adjusted gross income is less than $56,200 (less than $91,850 if married filing a joint return). Use the line 9 worksheet on this page to figure your modified adjusted gross income.

U.S. Savings Bonds That Qualify for Exclusion

To qualify for the exclusion, the bonds must be series EE U.S. savings bonds issued after 1989 in your name, or, if you are married, they may be issued in your name and your spouse's name. Also, you must have been age 24 or older before the bonds were issued. A bond bought by a parent and issued in the name of his or her child who is under age 24 does not qualify for the exclusion by the parent or child. Bond information may be verified with Department of the Treasury records.

Recordkeeping Requirements

To verify the amount of interest you exclude, you should keep the following records:

- A written record of each post-1989 series EE U.S. savings bond that you cash. Your written record must include the serial number, issue date, face value, and total redemption proceeds (principal and interest) of each bond. For this purpose, you may use Form 8818, Optional Form To Record Redemption of Series EE U.S. Savings Bonds Issued After 1989.
- Bills, receipts, canceled checks, or other documentation showing that you paid qualified higher education expenses during the year.

Specific Instructions

To figure the amount of interest you may exclude, you must complete the following lines on your tax return if they apply to you.

Form 1040 filers, complete lines 7, 8b, 9 through 21, and 23a through 30. Also, complete Schedule B (Form 1040) through line 2.

Form 1040A filers, complete lines 7, 8b, 9 through 13b, and 15a through 15c. Also, complete Schedule 1 (Form 1040A) through line 2.

But if you received social security benefits, use the worksheet in Pub. 915, Social Security Benefits and Equivalent Railroad Retirement Benefits, to figure the taxable amount, if any, of your benefits. Do not use the social security worksheet in the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A. Also, if you made contributions to your IRA for 1994 and you were covered by a retirement plan at work or through self-employment, use the chart and worksheets in Pub. 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), to figure your IRA deduction. Do not use the chart or IRA worksheet in the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A.
