General Instructions

A Change To Note

We have added the Form 4868-V payment voucher at the bottom of page 3 for taxpayers who are making a payment with Form 4868.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 4868 to obtain 4 more months to file Form 1040EZ, Form 1040A, or Form 1040. If you already had 2 extra months to file because you were "out of the country" (explained below) when your return was due, use this form to obtain an additional 2 months to file.

You do not have to explain why you are asking for the extension. We will contact you only if your request is denied.

To get the extra time you MUST:

- Properly estimate your 1994 tax liability using the information available to you,
- Enter your tax liability on line 1 of Form 4868, AND
- File Form 4868 by the due date of your return.

If you cannot pay the amount on line 3, see the instructions for line 3.

Do not file Form 4868 if you want the IRS to figure your tax or you are under a court order to file your return by the regular due date.

Note: An extension of time to file your 1994 calendar year income tax return also extends the time to file a gift tax return (Form 709 or 709-A) for 1994.

If the automatic extension does not give you enough time, you can ask for additional time later. But you'll have to give a good reason, and it must be approved by the IRS. To ask for the additional time, you must do either of the following:

1. File Form 2688, Application for Additional Extension of Time To File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, or

2. Explain your reason in a letter. Mail it to the address in column (b) under Where To File on page 4.

File Form 4868 before you file Form 2688 or write a letter asking for more time. Only in cases of undue hardship will the IRS approve your request for more time without receiving Form 4868 first. If you need this extra time, ask for it early so that you can still file your return on time if your request is not approved.

When To File Form 4868

File Form 4868 by April 17, 1995. If you are filing a fiscal year Form 1040, file Form 4868 by the regular due date of your return.

If you had 2 extra months to file your return because you were out of the country, file Form 4868 by June 15, 1995, for a 1994 calendar year return.

Filing Your Tax Return

You may file Form 1040EZ, Form 1040A, or Form 1040 any time before the extension of time is up. But remember, Form 4868 does not extend the time to pay taxes. If you do not pay the amount due by the regular due date, you will owe interest. You may also be charged penalties. Do not attach a copy of Form 4868 to your return.

Interest

You will owe interest on any tax not paid by the regular due date of your return. The interest runs until you pay the tax. Even if you had a good reason for not paying on time, you will still owe interest.

Late Payment Penalty

The penalty is usually $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% of any tax (other than estimated tax) not paid by the regular due date. It is charged for each month or part of a month the tax is unpaid. The maximum penalty is 25%.

For purposes of applying the late payment penalty only, the penalty will not be charged if you can show reasonable cause for not paying on time. To show reasonable cause, attach a statement to your return, not Form 4868, fully explaining your reason.

You are considered to have reasonable cause for the period covered by this automatic extension if at least 90% of your actual 1994 tax liability is paid before the regular due date of your return through withholding, estimated tax payments, or with Form 4868.

Late Filing Penalty

A penalty is usually charged if your return is filed after the due date (including extensions). It is usually 5% of the tax not paid by the regular due date for each month or part of a month your return is late. Generally, the maximum penalty is 25%. If your return is more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty is $100 or the balance of tax due on your return, whichever is smaller. You might not owe the penalty if you have a good reason for filing late. Attach a full explanation to your return, not Form 4868, if you file late.

How To Claim Credit for Payment Made With This Form

When you file your return, include the amount of any payment for line 3 sent with Form 4868 on the appropriate line of your tax return. If you file Form 1040EZ, the instructions for line 8 of that form will tell you how to report the payment. If you file Form 1040A, see the instructions for line 28d. If you file Form 1040, enter the payment on line 57.

If you and your spouse each filed a separate Form 4868 but later file a joint return for 1994, enter the total paid with both Forms 4868 on the appropriate line of your joint return.

If you and your spouse jointly filed Form 4868 but later file separate returns for 1994, you may enter the total amount paid with Form 4868 on either of your separate returns. Or you and your spouse may divide the payment in any agreed amounts. Be sure each separate return has the social security numbers of both spouses.

Specific Instructions

How To Complete Form 4868

Name, Address, and Social Security Number

Enter your name, address, and social security number. If you plan to file a joint return, also enter your spouse's name and social security number.

P.O. Box

If your post office does not deliver mail to your street address and you have a P.O. box, enter the box number instead.

Name Change

If you changed your name after you filed your last return because of marriage, divorce, etc., be sure to report this to your local Social Security Administration office before filing your Form 4868. This prevents delays in processing your extension request.

Address Change

If you changed your mailing address after you filed your last return, you should use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify the IRS of the change. A new address shown on Form 4868 will not update your record. You can get Form 8822 by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

Fiscal Year Filers

In the area provided above Part I, enter the date your 4-month extension will end and the date your tax year ends.

Out of the Country

If you already had 2 extra months to file because you were a U.S. citizen or resident and were out of the country on the due date of your return, use this form to obtain an additional 2 months to file. Write "Taxpayer Abroad" across the top of Form 4868. "Out of the country" means either (1) you live outside the United States and Puerto Rico and your main place of work is outside the United States and Puerto Rico, or (2) you are in military or naval service outside the United States and Puerto Rico.

Line 1

If we later determine that the amount entered on line 1 was not reasonable, the extension is null and void. You will owe the late filing penalty as explained earlier.

Line 3

If you find you can't pay the full amount shown on line 3, you can still get the extension. But you should pay as much as you can to limit the amount of interest you will owe. Also, you may be charged the late payment penalty on the unpaid tax from the regular due date of your return. See Late Payment Penalty on page 2.

If you are making a payment with Form 4868 for a line 3 balance due, complete Form 4868-V below.

Line 4

If you or your spouse are also using the extra 4 months to file a 1994 gift tax return, check whichever box applies on line 4. But if your spouse files a separate Form 4868, do not check the box for your spouse.

Lines 5a and 5b

Enter the amount you (or your spouse) expect to owe on these lines. If your spouse files a separate Form 4868, enter on your form only the total gift tax and GST tax you expect to owe. Pay in full with this form to avoid interest and penalties. If paying gift and GST taxes on time would cause you undue hardship (not just inconvenience), attach an explanation to Form 4868.

If you are making a payment with Form 4868 for line 5a or line 5b, complete Form 4868-V below.

Signature

Form 4868 must be signed. If you plan to file a joint return, both of you should sign. If there is a good reason why one of you cannot, the other spouse may sign for both. Attach a statement explaining why the other spouse cannot sign.

Others Who Can Sign for You

Anyone with a power of attorney can sign. But the following can sign for you without a power of attorney:

- Attorneys, CPAs, and enrolled agents.
- A person in close personal or business relationship to you who is signing because you cannot. There must be a good reason why you cannot sign, such as illness or absence. Attach an explanation to Form 4868.

How To Complete and Use the Payment Voucher

Complete and send in the payment voucher if you are making a payment with Form 4868. In addition to completing the voucher:

- Enclose your payment, making the check or money order payable to "Internal Revenue Service" (not "IRS").
- Do not send cash and do not staple or attach your payment to the voucher.
- Write your social security number, daytime phone number, and "1994 Form 4868" on your check or money order.
