Purpose of Form

Form 8823 is used by housing credit agencies to fulfill their responsibility under section 42(m)(1)(B)(iii) to notify the IRS of noncompliance with the low-income housing tax credit provisions. A separate form must be filed for each building that is not in compliance.

Who Must File

Print name and title

Any authorized housing credit agency that becomes aware that a low-income housing building is not in compliance with the provisions of section 42 must file Form 8823.

When To File

File Form 8823 no later than 45 days after the end of the time allowed the building owner to correct the condition(s) that caused noncompliance. For details, see Regulations section 1.42-5(e).

Where To File

File Form 8823 with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255.

Specific Instructions

Lines 2 and 4.—If there is more than one building owner (other than as a member of a flow-through entity), attach a schedule listing the owners and their taxpayer identification numbers.

Line 7.—Explain why the building is not in compliance with the low-income housing tax credit provisions. Also, indicate whether or not the building owner has corrected the noncompliance, and the date the noncompliance was corrected.

If more space is needed, attach a statement to this form.
