Form 8846 (1994) Page 2

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

Certain food and beverage establishments (see Who Should File below) use Form 8846 to claim a credit for social security and Medicare taxes paid or incurred by the employer on certain employees' tips. The credit is part of the general business credit under section 38 and is figured under the provisions of section 45B.

You can claim or elect not to claim the credit any time within 3 years from the due date of your return on either your original return or on an amended return.

Who Should File

Employers who meet both the conditions below should file:

- During the tax year, paid or incurred employer social security and Medicare taxes after December 31, 1993, on tips received by employees for services performed after December 31, 1993;
- Have employees whose tips are received at food or beverage establishments for the provision of food or beverages consumed on the premises of the establishment.

Tips are deemed to be received by the employee when a written statement identifying the tips is furnished to the employer by the employee as required by section 6053(a). Normally, the employee must report to the employer tips received during any month no later than the 10th day of the following month. An employer may require that tips be reported more often than monthly.

For example, tips received by an employee during December 1994 and reported to an employer on December 30, 1994, are deemed to be paid in 1994. Tips received by an employee during December 1994 and reported to an employer on January 6, 1995, are deemed to be paid in 1995.

However, tips received by employees in December 1993 and reported to the employer after December 31, 1993, are not included in the computation because the services were performed before January 1, 1994.

How the Credit Is Figured

Generally, the credit equals the amount of employer social security and Medicare taxes paid or incurred by the employer on tips received and reported to the employer by the employee. However, the employer social security and Medicare taxes on those tips that are used to meet the Federal minimum wage rate applicable to the employee under the Fair Labor Standards Act are not used in the computation. The Federal minimum wage rate (since April 1, 1991) is $4.25 per hour.

For example, an employee worked 100 hours and reported $300 in tips for January. The worker received $325 in wages (excluding tips) at the rate of $3.25 an hour. Because the Federal minimum wage rate was $4.25 an hour, the employee would have received wages, excluding tips, of $425 had the employee been paid at the Federal minimum wage rate. Thus, only $200 of the employee's tips for January is taken into account for credit purposes.

Specific Instructions Part I

Complete lines 1 through 4 to figure the current year credit from your trade or business. Skip lines 1 through 4 if you are claiming only a credit that was allocated to you from an S corporation or a partnership.

S Corporations and Partnerships

S corporations and partnerships figure their current year credit on lines 1 through 4, enter any credit from other flow-through entities on line 5, and allocate the credit on line 6 to the shareholders or partners. Attach Form 8846 to the S corporation or partnership return and show on Schedule K-1 each shareholder's or partner's credit.

Line 1.—Enter the tips reported by employees for services performed after December 31, 1993, on which you paid or incurred employer social security and Medicare taxes during the tax year. Include only tips received from customers in connection with providing food or beverages for consumption on the premises of a food or beverage establishment where tipping is customary. Do not include tips for carryouts or tips to food deliverers such as pizza delivery persons.

Line 2.—If you pay each tipped employee wages (excluding tips) equal to or more than the Federal minimum wage rate, enter zero on line 2.

Figure the amount of tips included on line 1 that are not creditable for each employee on a monthly basis. This is the total amount that would be payable to the employee at the Federal minimum wage rate reduced by the wages (excluding tips) actually paid to the employee during the month. Enter on line 2 the total amounts figured for all employees.

Line 4.—If any tipped employee's wages and tips exceeded the 1994 social security tax wage base of $60,600 subject to the 6.2% (.062) rate, check the box on line 4 and attach a separate computation showing the amount of tips subject to only the Medicare tax rate of 1.45% (.0145). Subtract these tips from the line 3 tips, and multiply the difference by .0765. Then, multiply the tips subject only to the Medicare tax by .0145. Enter the sum of these amounts on line 4.

All taxpayers must reduce the income tax deduction for employer social security and Medicare taxes by the amount of the current year credit on line 4.

Who Must File Form 3800

If for this year you have more than one of the credits included in the general business credit listed below, a carryback or carryforward of any of the credits, or a credit from a passive activity, you must complete Form 3800, General Business Credit, instead of completing Part II of Form 8846 to figure the tax liability limitation.

The general business credit consists of the following credits:

- Investment (Form 3468),
- Jobs (Form 5884),
- Alcohol used as fuel (Form 6478),
- Research (Form 6765),
- Low-income housing (Form 8586),
- Enhanced oil recovery (Form 8830),
- Disabled access (Form 8826),
- Renewable electricity production (Form 8835),
- Indian employment (Form 8845),
- Employer social security and Medicare taxes paid on certain employee tips (Form 8846), and
- Contributions to selected community development corporations (Form 8847).

The empowerment zone employment credit (Form 8844), while a component of the general business credit, is figured separately on Form 8844 and is never carried to Form 3800.

Part II

Line 7c.—Form 990-T filers, enter the total of either lines 35c and 37 or lines 36 and 37, whichever applies.

Line 10.—Enter the tentative minimum tax (TMT) that was figured on the appropriate alternative minimum tax (AMT) form or schedule. Although you may not owe AMT, you must still compute the TMT to figure your credit.

Line 12.—See section 38(c)(3) for special rules for married couples filing separate returns, for controlled groups, and for estates and trusts.

Line 14.—If you cannot use part of the credit because of the tax liability limitation (line 14 is less than line 6), carry the excess to other years. The excess credit cannot be carried back to any year ending before August 10, 1993. See the separate instructions for Form 3800 for details.
