Introduction– Begin Here

What is the EIC?

The earned income credit (EIC) is a tax credit for certain people who work and have earned income under $30,580. A tax credit usually means more money in your pocket. It reduces the amount of tax you owe. The EIC may also give you a refund.

Can I Claim the EIC?

To see if you can claim the EIC, you must first meet all of the rules explained in chapter 1. Then you must meet the rules in chapter 2 or chapter 3, depending on whether you have a qualifying child. There are two final rules you must meet in chapter 4. All of the rules in these four chapters are summarized in Table 1.

First, you must meet all rules in this column.	Second, you must either of th	Third, you must meet all the rules in this column.

Table 1. Earned Income Credit in a Nutshell

Although everyone can use this publication to figure their EIC, most people can choose to follow the steps in their tax form instructions instead. Some of the worksheets in the tax form instructions are shorter and easier than the ones found in this publication. The worksheets in this publication cover more situations.

If you claim the EIC and it is later disallowed, you may have to complete an additional form if you want to claim the credit in a following year. See chapter 5 for more information.

What If I Was Sent Here From the Instructions For Form 1040 or Form 1040A?

Certain people must use this publication to see if they can take the EIC and to figure the amount of the credit. You must meet all of the rules in chapters 1 and 4, and all of the rules in either chapter 2 or 3 (whichever applies). If you were sent here from Step 3 of your tax form instructions, you have met at least the first four rules in chapter 1. You now have to go to either Rule 5 or Rule 6. Use Table 2, below, to see which rule to begin with.

How Do I Figure the Amount Of EIC?

If you can claim the EIC, you can either have the IRS figure the amount of your credit, or you can figure it yourself. To figure it yourself, you can complete EIC Worksheet A or B in chapter 4. Or, unless you must use this publication, you can complete the worksheet in the instructions for the form you file.

How Can I Quickly Locate Specific Information?

You can use the index to look up specific information. In most cases, index entries will point you to headings, tables, worksheets, or to text in bold face.

How Can I Get EIC In My Paycheck In the Year 2000?

If you have a qualifying child, you may prefer to get some of next year's credit throughout the year, rather than wait and get the credit after you file your tax return. Chapter 6 explains advance payment of EIC and tells how you may be able to get some of the credit in your paycheck.

Important Reminders

Earned income credit has no effect on certain welfare benefits. The EIC and advance EIC payments you receive will not be used to determine whether you are eligible for the following benefit programs, or how much you can receive from these programs.

- Temporary assistance for needy families (TANF).
- Medicaid and supplemental security income (SSI).
- · Food stamps.
- Low-income housing.

Reporting advance payments of EIC received in 1999. If you received advance payments of EIC in 1999, you must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A to report the payments. Your Form W-2, box 9, (as shown in Figure 1, below) will show the amount you received. Report the amount on line 54 (Form 1040), or line 33 (Form 1040A).

Chapter 1. Rules for Everyone

This chapter discusses Rules 1 through 6. You must meet all six rules to qualify for the earned income credit. If you do not meet all six rules, you cannot get the credit and you do not need to read the rest of the publication.

Note. If you meet all six rules in this chapter, then read either chapter 2 or chapter 3 (whichever applies) for more rules you must meet.

Rule 1. Social Security Number (SSN)

Rule 1 You Must Have a Valid Social Security Number (SSN)

SSN that allows you to work. To claim the EIC, you must have a valid SSN for you and your spouse (if filing a joint return) and any qualifying child (See Rule 7.) SSNs are issued by the Social Security Administration. Most SSNs are issued to U.S. citizens or to persons who have permission from the Immigration and Naturalization Service to work in the United States. Some SSNs are issued solely for use in applying for or receiving federally funded benefits. You can claim the EIC only if you have an SSN that allows you to work. If your social security card says "Not valid for employment," you cannot get the EIC.

U.S. citizen. If you were a U.S. citizen when you received your SSN, you meet this rule.

SSN missing or incorrect. If an SSN for you or your spouse is missing from your tax return or is incorrect, you may not get the EIC.

Other taxpayer identification number. You cannot get the EIC if, instead of an SSN, you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) have an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). ITINs are issued by the Internal Revenue Service to noncitizens who cannot get an SSN.

No SSN. If you do not have a valid SSN that allows you to work, put "No" directly to the right of line 59a (Form 1040), line 37a (Form 1040A), or to the right of the word "below" on line 8b (Form 1040EZ).

Getting an SSN. If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) do not have an SSN, you can apply for one by filing Form SS–5 with the Social Security Administration.

Filing deadline approaching and still no SSN. If the filing deadline is approaching and you still do not have an SSN, you have two choices.

- 1) Request an automatic 4-month extension of time to file your return (Form 4868). This extension does not give you extra time to pay any tax owed. You should pay any amount you expect to owe to avoid interest or penalty charges. (For more information, see the instructions for Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return.)
- 2) File the return on time without claiming the EIC. After receiving the SSN, file an amended return (Form 1040X) claiming the EIC. Attach a filled-in Schedule EIC if you have a qualifying child.

Rule 2. Married Person's Filing Status

Rule 2 Your Filing Status Cannot Be "Married Filing Separately"

If you are married, you usually must file a joint return to claim the EIC. Your filing status cannot be "Married filing separately."

Spouse did not live with you. If you are married and your spouse did not live in your home at any time during the last 6 months of the year, you may be able to file as head of household, instead of married filing separately. In that case, you may be able to claim the EIC. For detailed information about filing as head of household, see Publication 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information.

Rule 3. Nonresident Alien

Rule 3 You Must Be a U.S. Citizen or Resident Alien All Year

You cannot claim the earned income credit if you are a nonresident alien for any part of the year, unless:

- 1) You are married to a U.S. citizen or a resident alien, and
- 2) You choose to be treated as a resident for all of 1999 by filing a joint return.

If you need more information on making this choice, get Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.

Note. If you make the choice in (2) above, you and your spouse are taxed on your worldwide income. You cannot claim any tax treaty benefits as a resident of a foreign country during a tax year in which the choice is in effect.

Rule 4 You Cannot File Form 2555 or Form 2555–EZ

You cannot claim the earned income credit if you file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income, or Form 2555–EZ, Foreign Earned Income Exclusion. You file these forms to exclude income earned in foreign countries from your gross income, or to deduct or exclude a foreign housing amount. U.S. possessions are not foreign countries. See Publication 54, Tax Guide for U.S. Citizens and Resident Aliens Abroad, for more detailed information.

Rule 5. Investment Income

Foreign Earned Income

Rule 4.

Rule 5 Your Investment Income Must Be $2,350 or Less

You cannot claim the earned income credit unless your investment income is $2,350 or less. If your investment income is more than $2,350, you cannot claim the credit.

Form 1040EZ. If you file Form 1040EZ, your investment income is the total of the amounts on line 2 and any tax-exempt interest you wrote in the space to the right of the words "Form 1040EZ" on line 2 of that form.

Form 1040A. If you file Form 1040A, your investment income is the total of the amounts on lines 8a (taxable interest), 8b (tax-exempt interest), and 9 (dividends) of that form.

Form 1040. If you file Form 1040, use Worksheet 1 in this publication to figure your investment income.

Rule 6. Earned Income

Rule 6 You Must Have Earned Income

This credit is called the "earned income credit" because, to qualify, you must work and have earned income. If you are married and file a joint return, you meet this rule if at least one spouse works and has earned income. Earned income includes all the income you get from working — even if it is not taxable. You will figure your earned income in chapter 4 by adding your taxable and nontaxable earned income. Worksheet 2 will help you figure these amounts.

Taxable Earned Income

Taxable earned income includes:

- 1) Wages, salaries, and tips,
- 2) Net earnings from self-employment, and
- 3) Gross income received as a statutory employee.

Wages, salaries, and tips. Wages, salaries, and tips you receive for working are earned income. They are reported to you on Form W-2, box 1. You should report these on line 1 (Form 1040EZ) or line 7 (Forms 1040A and 1040).

Tip for household employees. If you were a household employee who did not receive a Form W-2 because your employer paid you less than $1,100 in 1999, be sure to include the amount you were paid on line 7 (Form 1040 or 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ).

Net earnings from self-employment. You may have net earnings from self-employment if:

- You own your business, or
- You are a minister or member of a religious order.

Statutory employee. You are a statutory employee if you receive a Form W-2 on which the "Statutory employee" box (box 15) is checked. You report your income and expenses as a statutory employee on Schedule C or C-EZ (Form 1040).

Nontaxable Earned Income

This includes anything of value (money, goods, or services) that is not taxable that you received from your employer for your work. Common types of nontaxable earned income are listed in the following paragraphs.

Salary deferrals and reductions.

- Salary deferrals. These are contributions from your pay to certain retirement plans (such as a 401(k) plan or the Federal Thrift Savings Plan). These amounts are shown in box 13 of your Form W–2. The "Deferred compensation" box (box 15) of your Form W–2 should be checked.
- Salary reductions, such as under a cafeteria plan unless they are included in box 1 of your Form W-2. A cafeteria plan is a benefit plan offered by your employer that allows you to choose among two or more benefits consisting of cash and benefits that are not taxed. If you choose a benefit that is not taxed (such as accident and health insurance), the amount of the salary reduction is nontaxable earned income when figuring the EIC.
- Mandatory contributions to a state or local retirement plan.

Meals and lodging.

- Military employee basic housing and subsistence allowances, the value of in-kind housing and subsistence, and combat zone compensation. These amounts are shown in box 13 of your Form W-2 with code "Q." See Publication 3, Armed Forces' Tax Guide, for detailed information.
- Meals and lodging provided for the convenience of your employer.

• Housing allowance or rental value of a parsonage for the clergy. But do not include either of these items in Worksheet 2 on page 22, unless the item does not have to be included on Schedule SE, line 2.

Excludable employer-provided benefits.

- Dependent care benefits (line 18 of Form 2441 or Schedule 2 (Form 1040A)).
- Adoption benefits (Form 8839, line 30).
- Educational assistance benefits (these may be shown in box 14 of your Form W−2).

Native Americans

If you are a Native American and received amounts for services performed as an employee that are exempt from federal income tax under the Internal Revenue Code or because of a treaty, agreement, Act of Congress, or other federal law, these amounts are nontaxable earned income when figuring the EIC. (However, any tax-exempt income you received for performing services as a self-employed individual is not earned income when figuring the EIC.)

Approved Form 4361 or Form 4029

This section is for persons who have an approved:

- Form 4361, Application for Exemption from Self-Employment Tax for Use by Ministers, Members of Religious Orders and Christian Science Practitioners, or
- Form 4029, Application for Exemption from Social Security and Medicare Taxes and Waiver of Benefits.

Each approved form exempts certain income from social security taxes. Each form is discussed in this section in terms of what is or is not earned income for purposes of the EIC.

Form 4361. Even if you have an approved Form 4361, amounts you received for performing ministerial duties as an employee count as earned income. This includes wages, salaries, tips, and "other employee compensation." "Other employee compensation" includes nontaxable compensation such as housing allowances or the rental value of a parsonage that you receive for services as an employee. Amounts you received for performing ministerial duties, but not as an employee, do not count as earned income. Examples include fees for performing marriages and honoraria for delivering speeches.

Form 4029. Even if you have an approved Form 4029, all wages, salaries, tips, and other employee compensation count as earned income. However, amounts you received as a self-employed individual do not count as earned income. Also, in figuring earned income, do not subtract losses on Schedule C, C–EZ, or F from wages on line 7 of Form 1040.

Disability Benefits

If you retired on disability, benefits you receive under your employer's disability retirement plan are considered earned income until you reach minimum retirement age. Minimum retirement age generally is the earliest age at which you could have received a pension or annuity if you were not disabled. You must report your taxable disability payments on line 7 of either Form 1040 or Form 1040A until you reach minimum retirement age.

Beginning on the day after you reach minimum retirement age, payments you receive are taxable as a pension and are not considered earned income. Report taxable pension payments on Form 1040, lines 16a and 16b, or Form 1040A, lines 11a and 11b.

Disability insurance payments. Payments you received from a disability insurance policy that you paid the premiums for are not earned income. It does not matter whether you have reached minimum retirement age. If this policy is through your employer, the amount may be shown in box 13 of your Form W-2 with code "J."

Income That Is Not Earned Income

Examples of items that are NOT earned income include interest and dividends, pensions and annuities, social security and railroad retirement benefits, alimony and child support, welfare benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment compensation (insurance), nontaxable foster care payments, and veterans' benefits, including VA rehabilitation payments. Do NOT include any of these items in your nontaxable or taxable earned income.

Earnings while an inmate. Amounts received for work performed while an inmate in a penal institution are not earned income when figuring the earned income credit. These amounts include amounts received through a work release program or while in a halfway house.

Workfare payments. Nontaxable workfare payments are not earned income for the EIC. These are cash payments certain people receive from a state or local agency that administers public assistance programs funded under the federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program in return for certain work activities such as (1) work experience activities (including remodeling or repairing public housing) if sufficient private sector employment is not available, or (2) community service program activities.

Community property. If you are married, qualify to file as head of household, and live in a state that has community property laws, your earned income for the EIC does not include any amount earned by your spouse that is treated as belonging to you under those laws. That amount is not earned income for the EIC, even though you must include it in your gross income on your income tax return. Your earned income includes the entire amount you earned, even if part of it is treated as belonging to your spouse under your state's community property laws.

Chapter 2.

B B C's

If you have met all the rules in chapter 1, use this chapter to see if you have a qualifying child. This chapter discusses Rules 7 through 9. You must meet all three of those rules, in addition to the rules in chapters 1 and 4, to qualify for the earned income credit with a qualifying child.

Note. You must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A to claim the EIC with a qualifying child. (You cannot file Form 1040EZ.) You must also complete Schedule EIC and attach it to your return. If you meet all the rules in chapter 1 and this chapter, read chapter 4 to find out what to do next.

Rules If You Have a Qualifying Child

No qualifying child. If you do not meet Rule 7, you do not have a qualifying child. Read chapter 3 to find out if you can get the earned income credit.

Rule 7. Qualifying Child

Rule 7 Your Child Must Meet the Relationship, Age, and Residency Tests

Your child is a qualifying child if your child meets three tests. The three tests are:

- 1) Relationship,
- 2) Age, and
- 3) Residency.

The three tests are illustrated in Figure 2 on page 12. The paragraphs that follow contain more information about each test.

Relationship Test

Your child must be either your son, daughter, adopted child, grandchild, stepchild, or eligible foster child. The following definitions clarify the relationship test.

Adopted child. Your adopted child includes a child placed with you for adoption by an authorized placement agency, even if the adoption is not final.

Grandchild. For the EIC, this means any descendant of your son, daughter, or adopted child. For example, a grandchild includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.

Child not a dependent. Your child does not have to be your dependent to be a qualifying child, unless he or she is married.

Married child. If your child was married at the end of the year, he or she does not meet the relationship test unless either of these two situations applies to you:

- 1) You can claim the child's exemption, or
- 2) The reason that you cannot claim the child's exemption is that you gave that right to your child's other parent:
  - a) When you completed Form 8332 or a similar written statement, or
  - b) In a pre-1985 agreement (such as a separation agreement or divorce decree).

Eligible foster child. For the EIC, a person is your eligible foster child if:

- 1) You cared for that child as you would your own child, and
- 2) The child lived with you for the whole year, except for temporary absences (explained on page 14).

Tip:

The eligible foster child does not have to be related to you.

Example. Eligible foster child Example. You and your sister live together. You are 30. Your sister is 15. When your parents died 2 years ago, you took over the care of your sister, but you did not adopt her. Your sister meets the relationship test. She is considered your eligible foster child because she lived with you all year and because you cared for her as you would your own child.

Age Test

Your child must be:

- 1) Under age 19 at the end of 1999,
- 2) A full-time student under age 24 at the end of 1999, or
- 3) Permanently and totally disabled at any time during 1999, regardless of age.

The following definitions clarify the age test.

Full-time student. A full-time student is a student who is enrolled for the number of hours or courses the school considers to be full-time attendance.

Student defined. To qualify as a student, your child must be, during some part of each of any 5 calendar months during the calendar year:

- 1) A full-time student at a school that has a regular teaching staff, course of study, and regular student body, or
- A student taking a full-time, on-farm training course given by a school described in (1), or a state, county, or local government.

The 5 calendar months need not be consecutive.

School defined. A school can be an elementary school, junior or senior high school, a college, university, or a technical, trade, or mechanical school. However, on-the-job training courses, correspondence schools, and night schools do not count as schools for the EIC. (But, see Night school, later.)

Vocational high school students. Students who work in co-op jobs in private industry as a part of a school's regular course of classroom and practical training are considered full-time students.

Night school. Your child is not a full-time student if he or she attends school only at night. However, full-time attendance at a school may include some attendance at night as part of a full-time course of study.

Permanently and totally disabled. Your child is permanently and totally disabled if both of the following apply.

- 1) He or she cannot engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a physical or mental condition.
- 2) A doctor determines the condition has lasted or can be expected to last continuously for at least a year or can lead to death.

Residency Test

Your child must have lived with you in the United States for more than half of 1999 (all of 1999 if an eligible foster child). The following definitions clarify the residency test.

Home. Your home can be any location where you regularly live within one of the 50 states or the District of Columbia.

Homeless shelter. You do not need a traditional home. For example, if your child lived with you for more than half the year in one or more homeless shelters, your child meets the residency test.

Military personnel stationed outside the United States. U.S. military personnel stationed outside the United States on extended active duty are considered to live in the United States during that duty period for purposes of the EIC.

Extended active duty. Extended active duty means you are called or ordered to duty for an indefinite period or for a period of more than 90 days. Once you begin serving your extended active duty, you are still considered to have been on extended active duty even if you serve less than 90 days.

Birth or death of a child. If your child was born or died in 1999, he or she is considered to meet the residency test if your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive during 1999.

Temporary absences. Count time that you or your child is away from home on a temporary absence due to a special circumstance as time lived at home. Examples of a special circumstance include:

- Illness,
- · School attendance,
- · Business,
- · Vacation, and
- Military service.

Social security number.

Your qualifying child must have a valid social security number (SSN), unless the child was born and died in 1999. You cannot claim the EIC if:

- 1) Your qualifying child's SSN is missing from your tax return or is incorrect,
- 2) Your qualifying child's SSN was issued solely for use in applying for or receiving federally funded benefits,
- 3) Your qualifying child's social security card says "Not valid for employment," or
- 4) Instead of an SSN, your qualifying child has:
  - a) An individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), which is issued to a noncitizen who cannot get an SSN, or
  - b) An adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), which is issued to adopting parents who cannot get an SSN for the child being adopted until the adoption is final.

If you have two qualifying children and only one has a valid SSN, you can claim the EIC on the basis of that child only. For more information about SSNs, see SSN that allows you to work, on page 5.

Rule 8. Qualifying Child of More Than One Person

Rule 8 Your Qualifying Child Cannot Be the Qualifying Child of Another Person With a Higher Modified AGI

Sometimes a child meets the rules to be a qualifying child of more than one person. However, only one person can claim the credit using that child. The paragraphs that follow will help you decide who can claim the EIC when more than one person has the same qualifying child.

	Which person can claim the EIC. If you and someone else have the same qualifying child, the person with the higher modified adjusted gross income (AGI) is the only one who may be able to claim the EIC using that child. The person with the lower modified AGI cannot use that child to claim the EIC. This is true even if the person with the higher modified AGI does not claim the EIC or meet all of the rules to claim the EIC. If the other person is your spouse and you file a joint return, this rule does not apply. If three or more persons have the same qualifying child, the person with the highest modified AGI is the only one who may be able to claim the EIC using that child.
	Note. For most people modified AGI is the same as AGI (line 33, Form 1040, line 18, Form 1040A, or line 4, Form 1040EZ). Modified AGI is explained in detail in chapter 4. If your qualifying child meets the tests to be a qualifying child of any other person for 1999 and you have the higher modified AGI, you meet this rule. If you do not have the higher modified AGI, STOP . You cannot claim the credit either with or without a qualifying child. Put "No" beside line 59a (Form 1040) or line 37a (Form 1040A).
	Examples. The following examples may help you in determining whether you can claim the EIC when you and someone else have the same qualifying child.
Examples: You lived with your parent	Example 1. You and your son lived with your mother all year. You are 25 years old. Your only income was $9,300 from a part-time job. Your mother's only income was $15,000 from her job.
	Your son is a qualifying child of both you and your mother because he meets the relationship, age, and residency tests for both you and your mother. However, because you both have the same qualifying child, only one of you can claim the EIC. Because your mother's modified AGI ($15,000) is more than your modified AGI ($9,300), only your mother may be able to claim the EIC. You cannot claim the credit for persons either with or without a qualifying child.
	Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1 , but your mother had investment income of $3,000. Your mother cannot claim the EIC because her investment income is more than $2,350. (See Rule 5. ) Even though your mother cannot claim the EIC, you cannot claim it either because your mother's modified AGI is more than yours.
Examples: You lived with another relative	Example 3. You and your sister shared a household for the entire year. You have three young children who lived in the household. Your sister does not have any children. However, she cares for your children as if they were her own. You earned $15,000 and she earned $20,000. Neither of you had any other income.
	The children meet the age and residency tests for both you and your sister. They meet the relationship test for you because they are your children. They also meet the relation- ship test for your sister because they lived with her for the whole year and she cared for them as if they were her own. Therefore, they qualify as her eligible foster children. Your children are qualifying children of both you and your sister. However, because your sister's modified AGL is higher than yours, she is the only one who may be able to claim.

sister's modified AGI is higher than yours, she is the only one who may be able to claim the EIC. You and your sister cannot split the three qualifying children between you. You cannot claim the credit even though your sister enters the names of only two of the children on claim the credit even though your sister enters the names of only two of the children on her Schedule EIC. (Schedule EIC has spaces for the names of only two qualifying children because the credit is the same amount for two or more qualifying children.)

Example 4. The facts are the same as in Example 3, except that your oldest child is a full-time college student. Your sister does not care for this child as if the child were her own. Only the two younger children are qualifying children of both you and your sister. Your sister is the only one who may be able to claim the EIC on the basis of these two children because her modified AGI is higher than your modified AGI. Your oldest child is a qualifying child of you, but not your sister. Only you may be able to claim the EIC on the basis of this child.

Example 5. You, your spouse, and your 10-year-old son lived together until July 15. 1999, when your spouse moved out of the household. In November 1999, you and your spouse were divorced. Your modified AGI was $13,000. Your former spouse's modified AGI was $18,000. Your son is a qualifying child of both you and your former spouse because your son lived with each of you for more than half the year and because he met the relationship and age tests for both of you. However, because your former spouse's modified AGI ($18,000) was more than your modified AGI ($13,000), your former spouse is the only one who may be able to claim the EIC for 1999. You cannot claim the credit for persons either with or without a qualifying child.

Example 6. You, your 2-year-old son, and your son's father lived together all year. You and your son's father are not married. Your modified AGI was $18,000. Your son's father's modified AGI was $20,000.

Your son is a qualifying child of both you and his father because he meets the relationship, age, and residency tests for both you and his father. Because the father's modified AGI was more than yours, only he may be able to claim the EIC. You cannot claim the EIC for persons either with or without a gualifying child.

Example 7. You and your 5-year-old son moved in with your boyfriend in February 1999. Your boyfriend cares for your son as he would his own son. In December 1999, you had another child. Your boyfriend is the father. Your earned income and modified AGI were $5,000. Your boyfriend's earned income and modified AGI were $25,000.

Your 5-year-old son is your qualifying child, but not a qualifying child of your boyfriend, because your son and your boyfriend did not live together for the entire year. For this reason, only you can claim the EIC on the basis of your son.

The baby is a qualifying child of both you and your boyfriend. Because of this, only the person with the higher modified AGI can claim the EIC on the basis of the baby. Your boyfriend's modified AGI is higher than yours. Therefore, only he can claim the EIC on the basis of the baby.

If you meet all of the other rules, you can claim the EIC with one qualifying child, your son. If he meets all of the other rules, your boyfriend can claim the EIC with one qualifying child, the baby.

Example 8. You, your 8-year-old daughter, and your friend lived together all year. You and your friend are not married but share parental responsibilities and live as a family. Your friend cares for your daughter as she would care for her own child. Your earned income and modified AGI were $8,000. Your friend's earned income and modified AGI were $10,000.

Your daughter meets the age and residency tests for both you and your friend. She meets the relationship test for you because she is your daughter. She meets the relationship test for your friend because she qualifies as your friend's eligible foster child.

Your daughter is a qualifying child of both you and your friend. Because your friend's modified AGI is higher than yours, she is the only one who may be able to claim the credit. You cannot claim the credit for persons either with or without a qualifying child.

Examples:

You lived with someone not related to you

Example 9. The facts are the same as in Example 8, except that your friend does not care for your daughter as she would care for her own child. Your daughter is not a qualifying child of your friend, so only you may be able to claim the EIC on the basis of your daughter. Your friend may be able to claim the EIC for persons without a qualifying child if she meets all the requirements. (See chapter 3.)

Rule 9. Qualifying Child of Another Person

Rule 9 You Cannot Be a Qualifying Child of Another Person

You are a qualifying child of another person (your parent, guardian, foster parent, etc.) if:

- 1) You are that person's son, daughter, adopted child, stepchild, grandchild, or eligible foster child,
- 2) At the end of the year you were under age 19, or under age 24 and a full-time student, or any age if you were permanently and totally disabled at anytime during the year, and
- 3) You lived with that person in the United States for more than half of the year (all year if you were an eligible foster child). For the EIC, U.S. military personnel stationed outside the United States on extended active duty are considered to live in the United States during that duty period. See Military personnel stationed outside the United States on page 14 if you need more information.

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) are a qualifying child of another person, you cannot claim the EIC. This is true even if the person for whom you are a qualifying child does not claim the EIC or meet all of the rules to claim the EIC. Put "No" beside line 59a (Form 1040) or line 37a (Form 1040A).

Example. You and your daughter lived with your mother all year. You are 22 years old and attended a trade school full time. You had a part-time job and earned $5,700. You had no other income. Because you meet the relationship, age, and residency tests, you are a qualifying child of your mother. She can claim the EIC if she meets all the other requirements. Because you are your mother's qualifying child, you cannot claim the EIC. This is so even if your mother cannot or does not claim the EIC.

Chapter 3. Rules If You Do Not Have a Qualifying Child

Use this chapter if you do not have a qualifying child and have met all the rules in chapter 1. This chapter discusses Rules 10 through 13. You must meet all four of those rules, in addition to the rules in chapters 1 and 4, to qualify for the earned income credit without a qualifying child.

Note. You can file Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040EZ to claim the EIC without a qualifying child. If you meet all the rules in chapter 1 and this chapter, read chapter 4 to find out what to do next.

Rule 10 You Must Be at Least Age 25 but Under Age 65

You must be at least age 25 but under age 65 at the end of 1999. If you are married filing a joint return, either you or your spouse must be at least age 25 but under age 65 at the end of 1999. It does not matter which spouse meets the age test, as long as one of the spouses does.

If neither you nor your spouse meets the age test, put "No" directly to the right of line 59a (Form 1040), line 37a (Form 1040A), or to the right of the word "below" on line 8b (Form 1040EZ).

Example 1. You are age 28 and unmarried. You meet this rule.

Example 2. You are married and filing a joint return. You are age 23 and your spouse is age 27. You meet this rule because your spouse is at least age 25 but under age 65.

Rule 11 You Cannot Be the Dependent of Another Person

If you are not filing a joint return, you meet this rule if:

- You checked box 6a on Form 1040 or 1040A, or
- You checked the "No" box on line 5 of Form 1040EZ.

If you are filing a joint return, you meet this rule if:

- You checked both box 6a and box 6b on Form 1040 or 1040A, or
- You and your spouse checked the "No" box on line 5 of Form 1040EZ.

If you are not sure whether someone else can claim you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) as a dependent, get Publication 501 and read the rules for claiming a dependent. If someone else can claim you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) as a dependent on his or her return, but does not, you still cannot claim the credit.

Example 1. In 1999, you were age 25, single, and living at home with your parents. You worked and were not a student. You earned $7,500. Your parents cannot claim you as a dependent. When you file your return, you claim an exemption for yourself by checking the "No" box on line 5 of your Form 1040EZ. You meet this rule.

Rule 10. Age

Examples: Age

Rule 11. Dependent of Another Person

Examples: Dependent of another person

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that you earned $2,000. Your parents can claim you as a dependent but decide not to. You do not meet this rule. You cannot claim the credit because your parents could have claimed you as a dependent.

Rule 12. Qualifying Child of Another Person

Rule 12You Cannot Be a Qualifying Child of AnotherPerson

You are a qualifying child of another person (your parent, guardian, foster parent, etc.) if:

- 1) You are that person's son, daughter, adopted child, stepchild, grandchild, or eligible foster child,
- 2) At the end of the year you were under age 19, or under age 24 and a full-time student, or any age if you were permanently and totally disabled at any time during the year, and
- 3) You lived with that person in the United States for more than half of the year (all year if you were an eligible foster child). For the EIC, U.S. military personnel stationed outside the United States on extended active duty are considered to live in the United States during that duty period. See Military personnel stationed outside the United States, below, if you need more information.

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) are a qualifying child of another person, you cannot claim the EIC. This is true even if the person for whom you are a qualifying child does not claim the EIC or meet all of the rules to claim the EIC. Put "No" directly to the right of line 59a (Form 1040), line 37a (Form 1040A), or to the right of the word "below" on line 8b (Form 1040EZ).

Example. You lived with your mother all year. You are age 26 and permanently and totally disabled. Your only income was from a community center where you went twice a week to answer telephones. You earned $1,500 for the year.

Because you meet the relationship, age, and residency tests, you are a qualifying child of your mother. She can claim the EIC if she meets all the other requirements. Because you are a qualifying child of your mother, you cannot claim the EIC. This is so even if your mother cannot or does not claim the EIC.

Rule 13 You Must Have Lived in the United States More Than Half of the Year

Your home (and your spouse's if filing a joint return) must have been in the United States for more than half the year.

If it was not, put "No" directly to the right of line 59a (Form 1040), line 37a (Form 1040A), or to the right of the word "below" on line 8b (Form 1040EZ).

Home. Your home can be any location where you regularly live within one of the 50 states or the District of Columbia.

Homeless shelter. You do not need a traditional home. If you lived in one or more homeless shelters in the United States for more than half the year, you meet this rule.

Military personnel stationed outside the United States. U.S. military personnel stationed outside the United States on extended active duty are considered to live in the United States during that duty period for the EIC.

Example: Qualifying child of another person

Rule 13. Main Home Extended active duty. Extended active duty means you are called or ordered to duty for an indefinite period or for a period of more than 90 days. Once you begin serving your extended active duty, you are still considered to have been on extended active duty even if you serve less than 90 days.

Chapter 4. Figuring and Claiming the EIC

You must meet two more rules to be eligible to claim the EIC.

You must figure two amounts to see if you meet the rules in this chapter. You also need to know these amounts to figure the amount of your EIC.

- 1) Total earned income.
- 2) Modified adjusted gross income (AGI).

You can use the worksheets on the next few pages to figure these amounts.

Rule 14. Earned Income Limits

Rule 14 Your Total Earned Income Must Be Less Than:

- $30,580 if you have more than one qualifying child,
- $26,928 if you have one qualifying child, or
- $10,200 if you do not have a qualifying child.

Earned income is explained in Rule 6 in chapter 1 and some examples are shown in Table 3. You figure your total earned income by adding your nontaxable earned income and your taxable earned income. You can use Worksheet 2.

Table 3. Examples of Taxable and Nontaxable Earned Income

Taxable Earned Income	Nontaxable Earned Income
Wages, salaries, and tips.	Salary deferrals and reductions.
Union strike benefits.	Meals and lodging provided for the conve- nience of your employer.
Long-term disability benefits received before minimum retirement age.	Excludable dependent care benefits.
Net earnings from self-employment.	Excludable adoption benefits.
Gross income received as a statutory employee.	Excludable educational assistance benefits.

Worksheet 2: Earned Income

Note. Do not include on this worksheet any net earnings from self-employment or any income you received as a statutory employee. Instead, enter those amounts on EIC Worksheet B (page 30). Taxable Earned Income Enter the amount from line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) 1. or line 1 (Form 1040EZ). 1. Enter the amount of any taxable scholarship or fellowship 2. grant not reported on a Form W-2. 3. Inmates. If you received any amount for work done while an inmate in a penal institution and that amount is included in the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ), enter that amount. 3.+ 4. Clergy. If you are a member of the clergy who files Schedule SE and the amount on line 2 of that schedule includes an amount that was also reported on line 7 (Form 1040), enter that amount. Add the amounts on lines 2, 3, and 4 of this worksheet. 5 6. Subtract line 5 of this worksheet from line 1. This is your taxable earned income. 6.= Nontaxable Earned Income Enter the amount of any salary deferrals and reductions. 7. 7. 8. Clergy. Enter the amount of any housing allowance or the rental value of a parsonage if you were not required to include that amount on line 2 of Schedule SE. 9. Enter the value of any meals and lodging that were nontaxable because they were provided for the convenience of your employer. (Do not include any amount included on line 8 of this worksheet or line 2 of Schedule SE.) 10. Enter the total of any other nontaxable amounts you re-10.+ _ ceived for work you performed. 11. Add the amounts on lines 7, 8, 9, and 10 of this worksheet. This is your nontaxable earned income. 11.+

Total Earned Income

Add the amounts on lines 6 and 11 of this worksheet. This is your total 12. earned income. (If you fill out EIC Worksheet A, enter this amount on line 1 of that worksheet.) 12.=

Your total earned income must be less than:

- $30,580 if you have more than one gualifying child.
- $26,928 if you have one qualifying child, or
- $10,200 if you do not have a gualifying child.

If your total earned income is too great, you cannot claim the EIC. Put "No" directly to the right of line 59a (Form 1040), line 37a (Form 1040A), or to the right of the word "below" on line 8b (Form 1040EZ). You do not need to read the rest of this publication. You can go back and finish the rest of your tax return.

Rule 15. Modified AGI Limits

Rule 15 Your Modified AGI Must Be Less Than:

- $30,580 if you have more than one qualifying child,
- $26,928 if you have one qualifying child, or
- $10,200 if you do not have a gualifying child.

Modified Adjusted Gross Income (AGI)

Modified AGI for most people is the same as AGI. AGI includes items such as taxable social security benefits and unemployment benefits. AGI is the amount on line 33 (Form 1040), line 18 (Form 1040A), or line 4 (Form 1040EZ).

You must add certain amounts to your AGI if you:

- Claim a loss on Schedule C, C-EZ, D, E, or F,
- Claim a loss from the rental of personal property not used in a trade or business,
- Received any tax-exempt interest, or
- Received any pension, annuity, or individual retirement arrangement (IRA) distribution that was partly nontaxable.

Community property. If you are married, qualify to file as head of household, and live in a state that has community property laws, your adjusted gross income (AGI) for the EIC includes that portion of both your and your spouse's wages that you are required to include in gross income. This is different from the community property rules that apply under Rule 6.

Roth IRA conversion. If you converted your traditional IRA to a Roth IRA during 1998 and elected to spread the taxable amount over 4 years, only 25% of the taxable amount is reported each tax year. This 25% is added to your AGI on line 16b of Form 1040, or line 10b of Form 1040A. Do not add to your modified AGI for 1999 the remaining amounts that will be included in your income for 2000 and 2001. (However, you may have to include those amounts in your 1999 AGI if you make a withdrawal from the Roth IRA. See Publication 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements, for details about withdrawals.)

Form 1040EZ. If you file Form 1040EZ, your modified AGI is the amount on line 4 of that form plus the amount of any tax-exempt interest you wrote in the space to the right of the words "Form 1040EZ" on line 2.

Form 1040A. If you file Form 1040A, your AGI is the amount on line 18 of that form. To find your modified AGI, add to your AGI any amount on line 8b of Form 1040A. Also, add the nontaxable part of any pension, annuity, or individual retirement arrangement (IRA) distribution, except any amount that is nontaxable because it was a trustee-to-trustee transfer or a rollover distribution. This is any part of the distribution that you did not report on lines 10b or 11b of Form 1040A (except any part that was nontaxable because you rolled it over into another account within 60 days or transferred it from one trustee to another). See Publication 590 for more information about IRAs, and Publication 575, Pension and Annuity Income, for more information about pensions and annuities.

Form 1040. If you file Form 1040, use Worksheet 3, next, to figure your modified AGI.

* Worksheet 3 instructions

*Worksheet 3 Instructions

To figure your modified AGI, you must add certain amounts to your AGI, including all or part of certain losses you are claiming on your return. On the worksheet, enter losses as positive amounts (except for lines 7, 8, and 9). For example, if your AGI (Form 1040, line 33) is $10,000 and you have a $1,000 capital loss from the sale of stock (Form 1040, line 13), you will enter $10,000 on line 1 of Worksheet 3 and $1,000 on line 3. If you do not have to enter any other amounts, your modified AGI is $11,000 ($10,000 plus $1,000).

Line 4. Nontaxable part of distribution. Enter on line 4 of Worksheet 3 the "nontaxable part" of any pension, annuity, or individual retirement arrangement (IRA) distribution you received in 1999. This is any part of the distribution that you did not report on lines 15b or 16b of Form 1040. But do not include on line 4 of Worksheet 3 any amount that was nontaxable because you rolled it over into another account within 60 days or transferred it from one trustee to another. See Publication 590 for more information about IRAs, and Publication 575 for more information about pensions and annuities.

Line 5. More than one business. If you have a business loss on line 12 of Form 1040, enter the amount of the loss on line 5 of Worksheet 3. Do this even if that loss amount is the result of combining gains and losses from more than one Schedule C.

Example. You have two Schedules C. One shows a $2,000 gain. The other shows a $10,000 loss. You enter the net loss of $8,000 on line 12 of Form 1040. When figuring your modified AGI for EIC, enter $8,000 on line 5 of Worksheet 3.

Example of a loss on Worksheet 3 (lines 5–12)

Lines 7, 8, and 9. These lines are an exception to the rule that all amounts entered on the worksheet must be entered as positive amounts. On these lines, enter any loss by enclosing it in parentheses.

Line 10. Combine the amounts on lines 7, 8, and 9 to arrive at the amount on line 10. For example, if you enter $2,000 on line 7, $1,000 on line 8, and a loss of ($3,500) on line 9, enter $500 ($2,000 + $1,000 - $3,500) on line 10. But if the result of combining lines 7, 8, and 9 is a gain, enter zero. For example, if you enter $2,000 on line 7, $1,000 on line 8, and a loss of ($2,500) on line 9, enter zero on line 10.

Your modified AGI must be less than:

- $30,580 if you have more than one qualifying child,
- $26,928 if you have one qualifying child, or
- $10,200 if you do not have a qualifying child.

If your modified AGI is too great, you cannot claim the EIC. You do not need to read the rest of this publication. You can go back and finish the rest of your tax return.

Tip:

If you want the IRS to figure your income tax, see Publication 967, The IRS Will Figure Your Tax.

IRS Will Figure the EIC for You

The IRS will figure your EIC for you if you follow the instructions in Figure 3 below. If you have a qualifying child, complete and attach Schedule EIC. If you want to figure the credit yourself, use EIC Worksheet A or B.

You cannot report advance payments of EIC on Form 1040EZ. If you received advance payments of EIC during 1999, you must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A.

Note. If you do not have a qualifying child, STOP here and complete your Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040EZ and mail it to the IRS. If you do have a qualifying child, see Schedule EIC, later.

Special instructions for clergy, household employees, and prison inmates. Use the following special instructions if one of the following situations applies to you.

Minister or member of a religious order. If you are filing Schedule SE and line 2 of that schedule includes an amount that is also included on line 7 (Form 1040), print "Clergy" directly to the right of line 59a (Form 1040). Also show the amount included on both lines (for example, "Clergy $800"). If you received a housing allowance or were provided housing and you were required to include the allowance or the rental value of the parsonage on Schedule SE, line 2, do not include it as nontaxable earned income on line 59b (Form 1040).

Household employee. If you were a household employee who did not receive a Form W-2 because your employer paid you less than $1,100 in 1999, print "HSH" and the amount paid that was not reported on Form W-2 in the space on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040), in the space to the left of line 7 (Form 1040A), or in the space to the right of the words "W-2 form(s)" on line 1 (Form 1040EZ). Also, be sure to include that amount in the total for line 7 of either Form 1040 or Form 1040A, or line 1 of Form 1040EZ.

Inmates. If you were an inmate in a penal institution and the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ) includes an amount paid to you for work you performed while an inmate, print "PRI" and the amount paid on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040), in the space to the left of line 7 (Form 1040A), or in the space to the right of the words "W-2 form(s)" on line 1 (Form 1040EZ).

How To Figure the EIC Yourself

You may be able to use an EIC worksheet in your tax package instead of EIC Worksheet A or B at the end of this chapter. If you are filing Form 1040EZ, you can use the worksheet in your tax package. If you are filing Form 1040A, you can use the worksheet in your tax package if you answered "No" to the first two questions in Step 3 of the instructions for lines 37a and b. If you are filing Form 1040, you can use a worksheet in your tax package if you answered "No" to the first five questions in Step 3 of the instructions for lines 59a and 59b.

How To Use EIC Worksheets A and B

Use EIC Worksheet A (page 29) or EIC Worksheet B (page 30) to figure the amount of your EIC. This section explains how to use these worksheets and how to report the EIC on your return.

EIC Worksheet A. Use EIC Worksheet A if you are not self-employed or a statutory employee filing Schedule C or C-EZ. You will need the amounts you figured in the worksheets earlier in this chapter to complete EIC Worksheet A.

EIC Worksheet B. Use EIC Worksheet B if you are self-employed or a statutory employee filing Schedule C or C-EZ. You will need the amounts you figured in the worksheets earlier in this chapter to complete EIC Worksheet B. If any of the following situations apply to you, read the paragraph and then complete EIC Worksheet B.

Net earnings from self-employment. If your net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more, be sure to correctly fill out Schedule SE (Form 1040) and pay the proper amount of self-employment tax. If you do not, you may not get all the EIC you are entitled to.

When to use the optional methods of figuring net earnings. Using the optional methods on Schedule SE to figure your net earnings from self-employment may qualify you for the EIC or give you a larger credit. If your net earnings (without using the optional methods) are less than $1,600, see Publication 533, Self-Employment Tax, and the instructions for Schedule SE, for details about the optional methods.

When both spouses have self-employment income. You must complete both Parts 1 and 2 of EIC Worksheet B if all of the following conditions apply to you.

- You are married filing a joint return. 1)
- 2) Both you and your spouse have income from self-employment.
- 3) You or your spouse files a Schedule SE and the other spouse does not file Schedule SE.

Statutory employees. Statutory employees report wages and expenses on Schedule C or C-EZ. They do not file Schedule SE. If you are a statutory employee, enter amounts from Schedule C or C-EZ in Part 3 when you complete EIC Worksheet B.

Special Instructions for Clergy, Household Employees, and Prison Inmates

Use the following special instructions if one of the following situations applies to you.

Minister or member of a religious order. If you are filing Schedule SE and line 2 of that schedule includes an amount that is also included on line 7 (Form 1040), print "Clergy" directly to the right of line 59a (Form 1040). Also show the amount included on both lines (for example, "Clergy $800"). If you received a housing allowance or were provided housing and you were required to include the allowance or the rental value of the parsonage on Schedule SE, line 2, do not include it as nontaxable earned income on line 59b (Form 1040).

Household employee. If you were a household employee who did not receive a Form W-2 because your employer paid you less than $1,100 in 1999, print "HSH" and the amount paid that was not reported on Form W-2 in the space on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040), in the space to the left of line 7 (Form 1040A), or in the space to the right of the words "W-2 form(s)" on line 1 (Form 1040EZ). Also, be sure to include that amount in the total for line 7 of either Form 1040 or Form 1040A, or line 1 of Form 1040EZ.

Inmates. If you were an inmate in a penal institution and the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ) includes an amount paid to you for work you performed while an inmate, print "PRI" and the amount paid on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040), in the space to the left of line 7 (Form 1040A), or in the space to the right of the words "W-2 form(s)" on line 1 (Form 1040EZ).

Schedule EIC

You must complete and attach Schedule EIC to your tax return if you have a qualifying child and are claiming the EIC. Schedule EIC provides IRS with information about your gualifying children, including their names, ages, SSNs, relationship to you, and the amount of time they lived with you during the year. An example of a filled-in Schedule EIC is shown on page 40.

If you are required to complete and attach Schedule EIC but do not, it will take longer to process your return and issue your refund.

Disallowance of the EIC

If your earned income credit (EIC) for 1997 or 1998 was denied (disallowed) or reduced by the IRS, you may need to complete an additional form to claim the credit for 1999.

This chapter is for people whose earned income credit (EIC) for 1997 or 1998 was denied or reduced by the IRS. If this applies to you and you want to claim the credit for 1999, you may need to complete and attach Form 8862, Information To Claim Earned Income Credit After Disallowance, to your 1999 return. This chapter explains when you need to attach Form 8862.

This chapter also explains the rules for certain people who cannot claim the EIC for a period of years because their EIC was denied or reduced for 1997 or 1998.

Form 8862

If your EIC for 1997 or 1998 was denied or reduced for any reason other than a mathematical or clerical error, you must attach a completed Form 8862 to your next tax return if you wish to claim the EIC. The date on which your EIC was denied and the date on which you file your 1999 return affect whether you need to attach Form 8862 to your 1999 return or to a later return. The following examples demonstrate whether Form 8862 is required for 1999 or 2000.

Example 1. You claimed the EIC on your 1998 tax return, which you filed in March 1999. The IRS questioned the EIC, you were unable to support your claim, and, in September 1999, you received a statutory notice of deficiency telling you that an adjustment would be assessed unless you filed a petition in the Tax Court within 90 days. You did not act on this notice within 90 days. Therefore, your EIC was denied in December 1999. If you wish to claim the EIC on your 1999 return, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return.

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that you received the statutory notice of deficiency in February 2000. Because the 90-day period referred to in the statutory notice is not over when you are ready to file your return for 1999, you should not attach Form 8862 to your 1999 return. However, if you wish to claim the EIC for the year 2000, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for that year.

Exception for mathematical or clerical errors. If your EIC for 1997 or 1998 was denied or reduced as a result of a mathematical or clerical error, do not attach Form 8862 to your next tax return. For example, if your arithmetic is incorrect, the IRS can correct it and adjust your return. If you do not provide a correct social security number and claim the EIC, the IRS can deny the EIC and adjust your return. These kinds of errors are called mathematical or clerical errors.

Omission of Form 8862. If you are required to attach Form 8862 to your 1999 tax return, and you claim the EIC without attaching a completed Form 8862, your claim will be automatically denied. This is considered a mathematical or clerical error. You will not be permitted to claim the EIC without a completed Form 8862.

Example: Form 8862 required for 1999

Example:

Form 8862 required for 2000

Are You Prohibited From Claiming the EIC for a Period of Years?

If your EIC for 1997 or 1998 was denied and it was determined that your error was due to reckless or intentional disregard of the EIC rules, then you cannot claim the EIC for the next 2 years. If your error was due to fraud, then you cannot claim the EIC for the next 10 years. The date on which your EIC was denied and the date on which you file your 1999 return affect the years for which you are prohibited from claiming the EIC. The following examples demonstrate which years you are prohibited from claiming the EIC.

Example 3. You claimed the EIC on your 1998 tax return, which you filed in March 1999. In October 1999, the IRS denied your claim and determined that your error was due to reckless or intentional disregard of the EIC rules. You cannot claim the EIC for tax year 1999 or 2000. If you wish to claim the EIC on your return for 2001, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for 2001.

Example 4. The facts are the same as in Example 3, except that the IRS did not disallow your 1998 EIC until after you filed your 1999 return. You cannot claim the EIC for tax year 2000 or 2001. If you wish to claim the EIC on your return for 2002, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for 2002.

Example 5. You claimed the EIC on your 1998 tax return, which you filed in February 1999. In December 1999, the IRS denied your claim and determined that your error was due to fraud. You cannot claim the EIC for tax years 1999 through 2008. If you wish to claim the EIC on your return for 2009, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for 2009.

Chapter 6.

Advance Payment of EIC in 2000

You can receive part of your year 2000 EIC in your paycheck by completing a form and giving it to your employer.

Do you expect to be eligible for the EIC this year (2000) and to have a qualifying child? If so, you can choose to get payments of the EIC in your paycheck now instead of waiting to get your EIC all at once in 2001 when you file your tax return for the year 2000. These payments are called advance EIC payments. This chapter explains how you may be able to get them this year and how to report them on your tax return.

Example. In March of 2000, John and Tom worked together. Tom told John that he gets $40 added to his paycheck each month because of the earned income credit. John would like to get an extra amount every month too. John needs to find out if he can claim the EIC in 2000. He should answer the questions in Step 1 below and then, if he is eligible for advance EIC payments, go to Step 2.

Note. In chapters 1 through 5 of this publication, the rules for claiming the EIC apply to the EIC you claim on your 1999 tax return. In this chapter, the rules apply to EIC you expect to claim on your 2000 tax return. If you received advance payments of the EIC in 1999, see Important Reminders on page 3 for information on reporting these payments.

Step 1 Find Out If You Are Eligible for Advance Payments of the EIC

Answer the following four questions to see if you are eligible for advance payments of EIC.

Note. When the question says "expect," you do not have to know that you will be able to answer "Yes" when you file your tax return. You can only make a best guess that you will be able to answer "Yes."

Question 1. -

Do you expect to have a qualifying child? (See the definition of qualifying child beginning on page 11.)

Go to Question 2.

No. <sup>[5709]</sup> You cannot get advance payments of EIC.

Tip:

See the 2000 Form W–5 for the exact amount. Earned income and modified AGI are explained on pages 7 and 22. Question 2.

Do you expect that your earned income and modified adjusted gross income will each be less than approximately $27,000?

Yes. Go to Question 3.  □ No. <sup>[STOP]</sup> You cannot get advance payments of EIC.

Example: How advance payment of EIC works

Question 3.

Do you expect to be eligible for EIC in 2000 as explained in chapters 1, 2, 3, and 4?

Yes.
Go to Question 4.

 No. (TOP) You cannot get advance payments of EIC.

Not Sure. Read the rules in chapters 1, 2, 3, and 4 and/or the instructions for Form W-5. Then answer "Yes" or "No."

Note. The rules in chapters 1, 2, 3, and 4 are expected to be the same for the year 2000, except that you will be allowed to have more earned income, a higher modified AGI, and possibly more investment income. The correct amounts for the year 2000 are in the instructions for the 2000 Form W-5.

Question 4. -

Are your wages subject to withholding of federal income tax, social security tax, or Medicare tax?

Go to Step 2.

 No. <sup>[STOP]</sup> You cannot get advance payments of EIC.

Step 2 Complete Form W–5 and Give It to Your Employer

If you answered "Yes" to all the questions in Step 1, and you wish to get part of your EIC now, you must give your employer a Form W-5 for the year 2000.

After you have read the instructions and completed Form W–5, give the lower part of the form to your employer. Keep the top part for your records. A part of a blank Form W–5 is shown here.

The law permits your employer to pay you only part of your EIC during the year in advance payments. You will get the rest of the EIC you are entitled to when you file your tax return in 2001 and claim the EIC.

Tip:

If you are a farm worker and are paid on a daily basis, your employer is not required to pay you the advance amount of EIC.

If you get advance payments of EIC in the year 2000, you must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A for that year (even if you would otherwise not be required to file a tax return). You cannot file Form 1040EZ. You must file a return to report the payments you got in your paycheck throughout the year and to take advantage of any additional EIC.

Frequently Asked Questions About Form W-5

1. How do I get Form W–5? Ask your employer for the form. Or, see How To Get More Information on page 50.

2. What should I do if I have more than one employer? Give a Form W-5 to only one employer.

3. Can I give my employer a Form W–5 if my spouse has given her employer a Form W–5? Yes.

4. How often do I have to file Form W-5? The year 2000 Form W-5 you give to your employer is valid until December 31, 2000. If you expect to be eligible for EIC in 2001 and you want to receive advance payments, you must give your employer a new Form W-5 in 2001. Do this each year you expect to be eligible for the EIC.

5. What should I do if my situation changes after I give Form W-5 to my employer? Give your employer a new Form W-5 if any situation shown in the following table applies to you for 2000.

Table 4. Changes to Advance EIC Status

IF	THEN you must give your employer a new Form W-5. To indicate your change, check

Step 3 How To Report Advance Payments of EIC

If you receive advance payments of EIC in the year 2000, and you later find out that you are not eligible for some or all of them, you still must report them on your tax return. If you receive advance payments of EIC in the year 2000, you must file a year 2000 tax return to report the payments. Box 9 of your Form W–2 will show the amount you received. See the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A for the line number on which you report advance payments of EIC.

You cannot use Form 1040EZ to report your advance payments. You must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A.

Detailed Examples

The next few pages contain four detailed examples (with a filled-in Schedule EIC and EIC Worksheets) that may be helpful if you have questions about claiming the EIC.

Example 1. Cynthia and Jerry Grey

Cynthia and Jerry Grey have two children, Kirk, age 8, and Susanne, age 6. The children lived with Cynthia and Jerry for all of 1999. Cynthia earned wages of $15,000 and Jerry had wages of $10,000. The Greys received $50 in interest on their savings account. They had no other income in 1999.

Cynthia and Jerry have the 1999 Form 1040A tax package and instructions. They want to see if they qualify for the EIC, so they follow the steps for lines 37a and 37b in the instructions.

Step 1. In Step 1 of those instructions Cynthia and Jerry determine several things.

- They each have valid social security numbers (SSNs) that allow them to work. (The 1) children also have SSNs that will allow them to work.)
- They will file a joint return. 2)
- 3) Neither Cynthia nor Jerry is a nonresident alien.

Step 2. The only investment income the Greys have is their $50 interest income. That amount is not more than $2,350, so they go to Step 3.

Step 3. In Step 3 of the instructions for lines 37a and 37b, the Greys find out that they do not have to use Publication 596. However, they decide to get and use the publication because they want to know more about advance EIC. When they read Publication 596, they find that they have already met Rules 1 - 5 and can start with Rule 6 on page 7.

Rule 6. The Greys meet this rule because they have earned income (Cynthia's and Jerry's wages). They go to Rule 7 in chapter 2 because they believe they have gualifying children.

Rule 7. Cynthia and Jerry meet this rule because both Kirk and Susanne meet the relationship, residency, and age tests.

Rule 8. The Greys meet this rule because they determine that Kirk and Susanne are not qualifying children of anyone else.

Rule 9. Cynthia and Jerry meet this rule because they themselves are not qualifying children of anyone else. They meet all the rules so far so they go to chapter 4.

Rule 14. Cynthia and Jerry complete Worksheet 2 (not shown here) and figure their total earned income to be $25,000, the amount of their combined wages. They meet this rule.

Rule 15. Cynthia and Jerry's AGI is $25,050 ($25,000 + $50), the amount on line 18a of their Form 1040A. They have no tax-exempt income or partly nontaxable pensions or annuities, so their modified AGI is also $25,050. They meet Rule 15.

Example:

Cynthia and Jerry Grey have two children, are both employed, and will file Form 1040A.

Completing EIC Worksheet A. Cynthia and Jerry want to figure their EIC themselves, so they complete EIC Worksheet A (shown here). They complete EIC Worksheet A, rather than EIC Worksheet B, because they are not self-employed or filing Schedule C or C–EZ as statutory employees.

Example:

David and Judy Brown have three children, are both self-employed, and will file Form 1040.

Example 2. David and Judy Brown

David and Judy Brown have three children—Karl, age 4, and twins, Karin and Susan, age 2. David worked and earned $17,200. He asked his employer to contribute $1,200 of his pay to a 401(k) plan, so he will pay tax on only $16,000 ($17,200 – $1,200). He received $1,500 in unemployment compensation. David also began a consulting business. After expenses, David had a loss of $1,000. Judy made crafts and sold them at a flea market. She had a profit of $706. In addition, David and Judy received $50 in interest from a savings account.

Judy completes Schedule C–EZ and reports the $706 profit. She also completes Schedule SE and calculated self-employment tax of $100. She puts this figure on line 50 (Form 1040) and deducts $50, one-half of her self-employment tax, on line 27 (Form 1040).

David completes Schedule C and reports his 1,000 loss. David and Judy combine their Schedules C and C–EZ to report a loss of 294 (706 - 1,000) on line 12 of their Form 1040. David will not complete Schedule SE because he does not have any net earnings from self-employment.

David and Judy follow the steps in their Form 1040 instructions to claim the EIC. The only investment income they have is the $50 interest from their savings account. They find out in Step 3 of the Form 1040 instructions that, because they are claiming a loss on line 12 of Form 1040, they must use Publication 596 to determine if they are eligible to claim the EIC. When they receive Publication 596, they read Table 2, What if I was sent here from the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A? on page 2 and find that they can start with Rule 6 on page 7. In Rule 7, they determine that all three children are qualifying children. In chapter 4, the Browns figure their nontaxable earned income to be $1,200 (David's contribution to a 401(k) plan) and their taxable earned income to be $16,000. They complete Worksheet 3 (shown here) and figure their modified AGI to be $17,427.

Completing EIC Worksheet B. Because the Browns have self-employment income and want to figure their credit themselves, they complete EIC Worksheet B (shown here).

Part 1. David and Judy begin EIC Worksheet B with Part 1 because Judy is self-employed and will file Schedule SE. They enter $706 and $50 from Judy's Schedule SE on lines 1a and 1d respectively. They figure line 1e to be $656 ($706 – $50).

Part 2. Because David is not filing Schedule SE, the Browns enter David's $1,000 loss on lines 2b and 2c. They skip Part 3 because neither David nor Judy is a statutory employee.

Part 4. The Browns combine lines 1e, 2c, and 3 and enter the result on line 4a. They enter their nontaxable earned income of $1,200 on line 4b and their taxable earned income of $16,000 on line 4c. They figure their total earned income on line 4d to be $16,856. Because that amount is less than $30,580, they qualify for the credit, so they enter their total earned income on line 6.

Part 5. David and Judy look up the amount on line 6 ($16,856) in the EIC Table for Two children. They enter the amount of $2,886 on line 7. They enter their modified AGI amount ($17,427 from Worksheet 3) on line 8 and see that it is different from the amount on line 6. They look up $17,427 in the EIC Table and enter the amount of $2,770 on line 10. They enter $2,770 on line 11. This is the smaller of the line 7 amount ($2,886) and the line 10 amount ($2,770).

Part 6. The Browns do not owe AMT (line 12) so they enter their EIC of $2,770 on line 13. They also enter that amount on line 59a of their Form 1040. They enter "$1,200" and "401(k) contribution" on line 59b to show their nontaxable earned income. They will now complete Schedule EIC (not shown), including information for two of their three children, and attach it to their return. They will keep EIC Worksheet B for their records.

Example:

Sharon Rose is employed part time, receives a pension, and will file Form 1040A.

Example 3. Sharon Rose (Form 1040A)

Sharon Rose is age 63 and retired. She received $7,000 in social security benefits during the year and $4,850 from a part-time job. She received pension payments of $6,000. Only $5,000 of those payments are taxable. Sharon had no other income. She lived alone in the United States for the entire year and cannot be claimed as a dependent on anyone else's return. She does not have any investment income and does not have a qualifying child.

Sharon reads the steps for eligibility in her Form 1040A instructions. In Step 3 she discovers that, because part of her pension is not taxable, she must use Publication 596 to find out if she can get the EIC.

To find her modified AGI, Sharon starts with her AGI of $9,850 ($4,850 + $5,000), the amount on line 18 of her Form 1040A. To that amount, she adds $1,000, the nontaxable part of her pension. The result is her modified AGI, $10,850, which is not less than $10,200 (the limit on modified AGI for people who do not have a qualifying child). She cannot take the EIC. She completes the rest of her Form 1040A and files it with the IRS.

Example:

Steve and Linda Green have two children, run a dairy farm, and will file Form 1040.

Example 4. Steve and Linda Green (Form 1040)

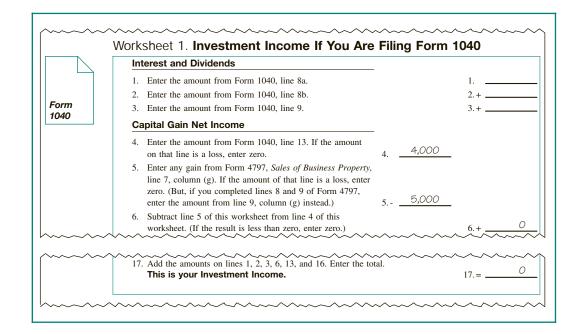

Steve and Linda Green have two children, Amy, age 8, and Carol, age 10, who lived with them all year.

Steve owns and operates a dairy farm that had a loss of $2,000 in 1999. Steve reports this loss on Schedule F and on Form 1040, line 18. Steve qualifies and chooses to use the optional method to figure net earnings, so he uses Section B of Schedule SE. He enters $1,600 on lines 15 and 4b of Section B of Schedule SE. Steve figures self-employment tax of $244. He deducts one-half of it ($122) on line 27 (Form 1040).

Linda had wages of $15,000, which she reports on Form 1040, line 7. She also received advance EIC payments of $1,140, which she reports on Form 1040, line 54.

Steve and Linda had a $1,000 loss from the sale of stock and a $5,000 gain from the sale of dairy cows. They report the $5,000 gain on Form 4797, Sales of Business Property. They do not have any other sales to report on Form 4797, so they enter $5,000 on line 7, column (g), of Form 4797 and on line 11, column (f), of Schedule D. (They have no prior year section 1231 losses.) They report their net capital gain of $4,000 from Schedule D on Form 1040, line 13.

1999 Earned Income Credit (EIC) Table Caution: This is not a tax table.

1. To find your credit, read down the "At least – But less than" columns and find the line that includes the amount you were told to look up from your EIC Worksheet. 2. Then, read across to the column that includes the number of qualifying children you have. Enter the credit from that column on your EIC Worksheet.

Example. If you have one qualifying child and the amount you are looking up from your EIC
Worksheet is $4,875, you would enter $1,658.

If the amount you are looking up from the worksheet is—

4,800 4,850

But less

4,900

4,950

5,000

At least

4,850

4,950

And you have— No One Two children child children

Your credit is-

347 1,641 1,930 347 1,658 1,950 347 1,675 1,970 347 1,692 1,990

Evaluating the guality of our telephone services. To ensure that IRS representatives give accurate, courteous, and professional answers, we evaluate the quality of our telephone services in several ways.

- A second IRS representative sometimes monitors live telephone calls. That person only evaluates the IRS assistor and does not keep a record of any taxpayer's name or tax identification number.
- We sometimes record telephone calls to evaluate IRS assistors objectively. We hold these recordings no longer than one week and use them only to measure the quality of assistance.
- We value our customers' opinions. Throughout this year, we will be surveying our customers for their opinions on our service.
