Instructions for question 4:

- As applicable, enter: street number; street; apartment, suite, or box number; city; state; and ZIP code.
- The address you enter will be the address under which you are enrolled; it is the address where we send your correspondence concerning your enrollment.
- If your enrollment mailing address changes, you must promptly send us a written change of address. Your written change of address must include: your name; your old address; your new addresses; your social security number; the date; and your signature.

Send your change of address to: IRS—Detroit Computing Center, P.O. Box 33968 Detroit, MI 48232 Attn: EPP Unit

- Sending Form 8822, Change of Address, to an Internal Revenue Service Center will not change your address with us (nor will sending Form 8822 to us change your address with a service center). If you send Form 8822 to a service center, you may, if you choose, send us a copy of Form 8822 as your written change of address.
- Your enrollment mailing address is protected as confidential under the Privacy Act. If you choose to sign the Optional Privacy Act Consent to Public Disclosure of Enrollment Mailing Address, we may disclose your enrollment mailing address, with your name, to the general public by print or electronic media. Disclosures to the general public may include: mailing lists requested by individuals or organizations seeking to offer you goods or services; telephone contacts or correspondence with individual members of the public; and Websites.
- If you do not sign the Optional Privacy Act Consent to Public Disclosure of Enrollment Mailing Address, your enrollment mailing address will remain confidential.
- In the event you are suspended or disbarred from practice before the IRS, we will publish your name, with your city and state (but not the street address of your enrollment mailing address), in the Internal Revenue Bulletin. Such publication is permitted by the Privacy Act.

6. Social Security Number

As part of the enrollment procedures, we verify that you timely filed your Federal tax returns. So that we can locate your returns without delay, we ask that you provide us your social security number. If you filed jointly with your spouse, we also need the social security number of your spouse. Disclosure is voluntary; no law requires this disclosure, but not giving the social security number(s) may result in delayed processing of this application.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Section 330 of title 31, United States Code, authorizes collection of this information. The primary use of this information is for the Director of Practice to act upon applications for enrollment to practice before the Internal Revenue Service and to maintain rosters of enrolled agents. Additional disclosures of the information may be made to Federal, state, or foreign agencies if relevant for their use in investigations of violations of laws or regulations, for hiring and retaining an individual, or granting a security clearance, license, contract, grant or other benefit. Furnishing the information on this form is voluntary but failure to do so may result in failure to grant you enrollment.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

We are requesting the information on this form to determine if you are qualified for enrollment to practice before the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to 31 CFR Part 10. The information is required for those who desire to practice as an enrolled agent.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is: 1 hour.

If you have any comments concerning the accuracy of this time estimate or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to the Tax Forms committee, Western Area Distribution Center, Rancho Cordova, CA 95743-0001. DO NOT send the form to this office. Instead, mail it to the address shown at the top of the form.
