Is the taxpayer, or the taxpayer's spouse if filing jointly, eligible to be claimed as a dependent on anyone else's Federal income tax return for the year on line 1?

- No. The taxpayer can claim the EIC if the taxpayer's earned income and modified AGI are each less than the limit that applies to the year on line 1. See Pub. 596 for the limit. Also, any nontaxable earned income must be entered on the appropriate line of the taxpayer's return for the year on line 1. If the taxpayer's EIC was reduced or disallowed for a year after 1996, see Pub. 596 to find out if Form 8862 must be filed.
- Yes. The taxpayer cannot claim the EIC.

Part III Taxpayers Without a Qualifying Child

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Paid preparers of Federal income tax returns or claims for refund involving the earned income credit (EIC) must meet the due diligence requirements in determining if the taxpayer is eligible for, and the amount of, the EIC. Failure to do so could result in a $100 penalty for each failure. See Internal Revenue Code section 6695(g).

Due Diligence Requirements. You will meet the due diligence requirements if all four of the following apply.

1. You complete Form 8867 (or your own form as long as it provides the same information as Form 8867).

2. You complete the EIC worksheet(s) in the Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ instructions, or in Pub. 596 (or your own worksheet(s) as long as it provides the same information as the 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ, or Pub. 596 worksheet(s)).

3. You have no knowledge that any of the information used to determine if the taxpayer is eligible for, and the amount of, the EIC is incorrect.

- 4. You keep the following information for 3 years*:
 - Form 8867 (or your own form), and
 - The EIC worksheet(s) (or your own worksheet(s)), and
 - A record of how, when, and from whom the information used to prepare the form and worksheet(s) was obtained.

*For returns and claims for refund due after October 16, 2000, the 3-year period begins the June 30th following the date you give the return or claim to the taxpayer to sign.

Specific Instructions Line 2

If the taxpayer was married at the end of the year, he or she must usually file a joint return to claim the EIC. However, if the taxpayer and his or her spouse were not living together at the end of the year, the taxpayer may be eligible to be treated as unmarried. See Pub. 596, Earned Income Credit, for details.

Line 3

For purposes of taking the EIC, an SSN is a number issued by the Social Security Administration to a U.S. citizen or to a person who has permission from the Immigration and Naturalization Service to work in the United States. It does not include an SSN issued only to allow a person to apply for or receive Federally funded benefits. You may find it useful to look at the social security card.

Line 6

An adopted child includes a child placed with the taxpayer by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption even if the adoption is not final. An authorized placement agency includes any person authorized by state law to place children for legal adoption.

A descendant usually refers to a grandchild or great-grandchild of the taxpayer.

An eligible foster child is a child the taxpayer cared for as his or her own child and who lived with the taxpayer for the whole year. But see Pub. 596 for an exception if the child did not live with the taxpayer for the required time. For years after 1999, to be an eligible foster child a child must also be (a) a brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister of the taxpayer; (b) a descendant (such as a child, including an adopted child) of a brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister of the taxpayer; or (c) a child placed with the taxpayer by an authorized placement agency.

See Pub. 596 for more details on the relationship test for qualifying children.

Line 7

If the child is married and the child's other parent claimed him or her as a dependent under the special rules for children of divorced or separated parents, check "Yes."

Line 10

If no one else lived with the taxpayer and the child, check "Yes." Also check "Yes" if the taxpayer is married filing jointly and the only other person who lived with the taxpayer and the child was the taxpayer's spouse.

You must ask the taxpayer if his or her modified AGI is higher than the modified AGI of any other taxpayer for whom the child is a qualifying child. If necessary, you must explain to the taxpayer what modified AGI means. However, you do not have to verify the amount of any other taxpayer's modified AGI.

Line 11

See the line 3 instructions for the definition of an SSN. If the child does not have an SSN because he or she was born and died in the year entered on line 1, check "Yes."
