	Caution. If there going to the new	e are two children, complete lines 6–11 for one child before tt column.

- 6 Is the child-
 - The taxpayer's son, daughter, adopted child, or stepchild, or
 - A descendant of the taxpaver's son, daughter, adopted child, or stepchild, or
 - The taxpayer's brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister, or
 - A descendant of the taxpayer's brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister, or
- 7 If the child is married, is the taxpayer claiming the child as a dependent?
- Did the child live with the taxpayer in the United States for over half of the 8
- year?..... 9 Was the child (at the end of the year on line 1)-
 - Under age 19, or

Under age 24 and a full-time student, or

• Any age and permanently and totally disabled?
Next, if you checked "Yes" on lines 6 through 9, the child is the taxpayer's qualifying child; go to line 10a. If you checked "No" on line 6, 7, 8, or 9, the child is not the taxpayer's qualifying child. If the taxpayer does not have a qualifying child, go to Part III on the back to see if the taxpayer can take the EIC for taxpayers who do not have a qualifying child.

- 10a Could any other person check "Yes" on lines 6 through 9 for the child? Next, if you checked "No" on line 10a, go to line 11. Otherwise, continue.
 - b Enter the child's relationship to the other person(s).
- c Is the other person(s) taking the EIC based on the child?
- d If the tie-breaker rules applied, would the child be treated as the taxpayer's qualifying child (see the instructions before answering)?

1	Does the qualifying child have a valid SSN (see the instructions before	_ answering)?
	Did you chock "Vos" on line 112

- Did you check "Yes" on line 11? The taxpayer can take the EIC if the taxpayer's earned income and adjusted gross income are each less than the Yes. limit that applies to the taxpayer's filing status for the year on line 1. See Pub. 596 for the limit. Complete Schedule EIC and attach it to the taxpayer's return. If there are two gualifying children with SSNs, list them on Schedule EIC in the same order as they are listed here. If the taxpayer's EIC was reduced or disallowed for a year after 1996, see Pub. 596 to find out if Form 8862 must also be filed.
- No. The taxpayer cannot take the EIC, not even the credit for taxpayers who do not have a qualifying child.

Part III

12	Was the taxpayer's main home, and the taxpayer's spouse if filing jointly, in the United States for more than half the year? (Military personnel on extended active duty outside the United States are considered to be living in the United States during that duty period.)	🗌 No
13	Was the taxpayer, or the taxpayer's spouse if filing jointly, at least age 25 but under age 65 at the end of the year on line 1?	🗌 No
	Next, if you checked "No" on line 12 or line 13, stop; the taxpayer cannot take the EIC. Otherwise, continue.

- 14 Is the taxpayer, or the taxpayer's spouse if filing jointly, eligible to be claimed as a dependent on anyone else's Federal income tax return for the year on line 1?
 - No. The taxpayer can take the EIC if the taxpayer's earned income and adjusted gross income are each less than the limit that applies to the taxpayer's filing status for the year on line 1. See Pub. 596 for the limit. If the taxpayer's EIC was reduced or disallowed for a year after 1996, see Pub. 596 to find out if Form 8862 must be filed.
 Yes. The taxpayer cannot take the EIC.

General Instructions

Do not use this form for a year before 2002. Instead, use the November 2000 revision of Form 8867.

Taxpayers Without a Qualifying Child

Purpose of Form

Paid preparers of Federal income tax returns or claims for refund involving the earned income credit (EIC) must meet the due diligence requirements in determining if the taxpayer is eligible for, and the amount of, the EIC. Failure to do so could result in a $100 penalty for each failure. See Internal Revenue Code section 6695(g). Due Diligence Requirements. You will meet the due diligence requirements if all four of the following apply.

1. You complete Form 8867 (or your own form as long as it provides the same information as Form 8867).

2. You complete the EIC worksheet(s) in the Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ instructions, or in Pub. 596 (or your own worksheet(s) as long as it provides the same information as the 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ, or Pub. 596 worksheet(s)).

3. You have no knowledge that any of the information used to determine if the taxpayer is eligible for, and the amount of, the EIC is incorrect.

4. You keep the following information for 3 years*:

- Form 8867 (or your own form),
- The EIC worksheet(s) (or your own worksheet(s)), and

• A record of how, when, and from whom the information used to prepare the form and worksheet(s) was obtained.

*For returns and claims for refund due after October 16, 2000, the 3-year period begins the June 30th following the date you give the return or claim to the taxpayer to sign.

Specific Instructions

Line 2

If the taxpayer was married at the end of the year, he or she must usually file a joint return to take the EIC. However, if the taxpayer and his or her spouse were not living together at the end of the year, the taxpayer may be eligible to be treated as unmarried. See Pub. 596 for details.

Line 3

For purposes of taking the EIC, a valid SSN is a number issued by the Social Security Administration unless "Not Valid for Employment" is printed on the social security card and the number was issued solely to apply for or receive a Federally funded benefit. You may find it useful to look at the social security card.

Line 6

If the child is the taxpayer's brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, or a descendant of the taxpayer's brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister, the taxpayer must have cared for the child as his or her own child.

An adopted child includes a child placed with the taxpayer by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption even if the adoption is not final. An authorized placement agency includes any person authorized by state law to place children for legal adoption.

A descendant usually refers to a grandchild or great-grandchild of the taxpayer. A niece or nephew is also considered a descendant of the taxpayer.

 $\mathbf{\widehat{S}}$

A foster child is a child placed with the taxpayer by an authorized placement agency and whom the taxpayer cared for as his or her own child.

Line 7

If the child is married and the child's other parent claimed him or her as a dependent under the special rules for children of divorced or separated parents, check "Yes."

Line 10d

If you checked "Yes" on line 10a, the child meets the conditions to be a qualifying child of both the taxpayer and at least one other person. However, only one person can take the EIC based on that child. The other person(s) cannot take the EIC for people who do not have a qualifying child, but may take the EIC based on a different qualifying child. The taxpayer and the other person(s) can decide who will take the EIC based on that qualifying child.

Tie-Breaker Rules. If the taxpayer and the other person(s) cannot agree on who will take the EIC, the following rules apply.

• If only one of the persons is the child's parent, the child will be treated as the qualifying child of the parent.

• If both persons are the child's parents, the child will be treated as the qualifying child of the parent with whom the child lived for the longer period of time during the year entered on line 1. If the child lived with each parent for the same amount of time, the child will be treated as the qualifying child of the parent who had the higher adjusted gross income (AGI) for the year entered on line 1.

• If none of the persons is the child's parent, the child will be treated as the qualifying child of the taxpayer who had the highest AGI for the year entered on line 1.

If you checked "Yes" on line 10c and "No" on line 10d, the child would not be treated as a qualifying child of the taxpayer under the tie-breaker rules.

Line 11

See the line 3 instructions for the definition of a valid SSN. If the child does not have a valid SSN because he or she was born and died during the year entered on line 1, check "Yes."

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for you to obtain the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to obtain this information.

You are not required to obtain the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number.
