FEATURED ITEMS...

Three Ways You Can Learn the Basics

Classroom Experience

IRS partners with seasoned tax professionals to take the mystery out of understanding your tax obligations. Small Business Tax Workshops are taught at locations all around the country. When you attend a workshop, you will receive

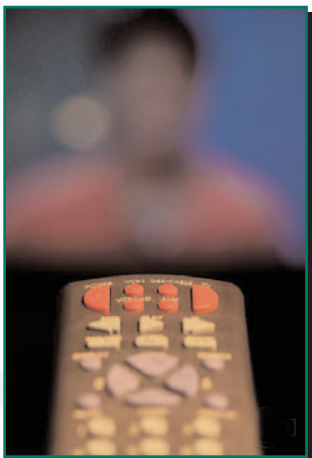

- A Student Workbook giving you an overview of the tax code and
- A Supplemental Guide with all the latest changes in the law
- Answers to your questions and confidence in understanding your federal tax obligations

For a listing of scheduled training classes in your area, see the IRS web site at www.irs.gov/smallbiz. Click on Small Business Workshop in the left margin.

On-Line Self-Directed Learning

Can't make it to a "live" workshop? Then link to the IRS On-Line classroom at www.irs.gov/smallbiz. Here you will find text based, interactive learning covering the same material as the classroom workshop and interactive, multi-media streaming video learning experiences with IRS instructors. You can study at a time of your choice and at your own pace anywhere you have access to a computer and the Internet. You may also review the Small Business Tax Workshop Instructor's slides used in the classroom workshops described above. The workshop is available in Spanish.

Self-Directed Off-Line Learning

Publication 1066C –A Virtual Small Business Tax Workshop Available mid-year 2005 will be an interactive, multi-media DVD covering the material in the "live" workshop. The 3 hours of lessons will cover topics such as organizing, recordkeeping, retirement plans, filing your business taxes, hiring employees or contractors, managing your payroll and filing your payroll taxes. Also included will be a Help! Lesson with information about state employment tax requirements.
