SEP CHECKLIST

This checklist is not a complete description of all plan requirements, and should not be used as a substitute for a complete plan review.

For Business Owner's Use
(DO NOT SEND THIS WORKSHEET TO THE IRS)

Every year it is important that you review the requirements for operating your Simplified Employee Pension (SEP) plan. Use this checklist to help you keep your plan in compliance with many of the important rules. See www.irs.gov/retirement for online versions of this checklist, Fix-It Guides and other resources for SEPs and other plan types. On the online version of this checklist, click on "(More)" in any of the questions for additional information (including examples) on how to find, fix and avoid each mistake.

1. Has your SEP been amended for current Yes No law?	4. Are you determining each eligible employee's compensation using the definition in your SEP document?
Laws related to retirement plans change quite frequently. You	• will need to change plan language and operation to keep the	Compensation used to determine contributions generally plan within the law.	includes all bonuses and commissions and is limited to (More)	$245,000 for 2011, subject to cost-of-living adjustments in later years.
	(More)
2. Is the business that the SEP covers the Yes No only business you own?
	5. Are contributions to each participant's Yes N
Employees of other businesses you and/or your family	SEP-IRA a uniform percentage of the members own may have to be treated as employees when	participant's compensation?
determining who is an eligible employee under this SEP.
More)	Employer contributions to a SEP must be the same percentage of compensation of each employee maintaining a SEP-IRA in the plan.
0. A	(More)
n the SEP?	6. Are SEP contributions to each Yes No.
in the SEP? Any employee who is at least 21 years of age, was employed	6. Are SEP contributions to each participant's IRA limited as required by
Any employee who is at least 21 years of age, was employed by you for 3 of the immediately preceding 5 years, and received compensation from you of at least $550 during the
Any employee who is at least 21 years of age, was employed by you for 3 of the immediately preceding 5 years, and received compensation from you of at least $550 during the year (subject to cost-of-living adjustments after 2011) is eligible	participant's IRA limited as required by the Internal Revenue Code?
Any employee who is at least 21 years of age, was employed by you for 3 of the immediately preceding 5 years, and received compensation from you of at least $550 during the year (subject to cost-of-living adjustments after 2011) is eligible to participate in a SEP.	participant's IRA limited as required by the Internal Revenue Code? All SEP contributions must go to traditional IRAs set up for the
Any employee who is at least 21 years of age, was employed by you for 3 of the immediately preceding 5 years, and received compensation from you of at least $550 during the year (subject to cost-of-living adjustments after 2011) is eligible to participate in a SEP.	participant's IRA limited as required by the Internal Revenue Code? All SEP contributions must go to traditional IRAs set up for the eligible employees and are limited to the lesser of 25% of
Any employee who is at least 21 years of age, was employed by you for 3 of the immediately preceding 5 years, and received compensation from you of at least $550 during the year (subject to cost-of-living adjustments after 2011) is eligible to participate in a SEP.	participant's IRA limited as required by the Internal Revenue Code? All SEP contributions must go to traditional IRAs set up for the

If you answered "No" to any of the above questions, you may have a mistake in the operation of your SEP plan. This list is only a guide to a more compliant plan, so answering "Yes" to each question may not mean your plan is 100% compliant. Many mistakes can be corrected easily, without penalty and without notifying the IRS.

■ contact your tax advisor

■ visit the IRS at www.irs.gov/retirement

call the IRS at (877) 829-5500